DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

1. Claims 1-30 were originally filed on September 18, 2006.

The preliminary amendment to the claims received on September 18, 2006 amended claims 1, 6, 8, 11, 12, and 15.

Claims 1-30 are currently pending and under consideration.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-11, drawn to a method of screening utilizing a polyclonal antibody microarray.

Group II, claim(s) 1-7 and 12-15, drawn to a method of screening utilizing a monoclonal antibody microarray.

Group III, claim(s) 16-17, drawn to a method of making an antibody microarray.

Group IV, claim(s) 18-20, drawn to an internal control.

Group V, claim(s) 21, drawn to a method of determining optimal spotting concentrations.

Group VI, claim(s) 22-26, drawn to a method to increase a detectable signal.

Group VII, claim(s) 27-30, drawn to a method of making a Phase I and Phase II antibody microarray.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the common technical feature is a protein (i.e.

Art Unit: 1639

internal control) and/or an antibody microarray with an internal control which is known in the art.

Specifically, Haab et al. teach antibody microarrays comprising internal controls including Flag and IgG (please refer to the abstract; page 2, right column; Figures 1, 3, 6; provided by applicants in the IDS). Thus, the common technical feature of a protein (i.e. internal control) and/or an antibody microarray with an internal control is known in the art and not considered a special technical feature.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

5. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
